SUMMER SUNDAY SCHEDULE SWITCH

Dear Christian Friends!

As I write this, we're only a few days "officially" into the season of spring – but I want to direct your attention to summer ... and to its "unofficial" start. It is common to think of summer as that stretch of time between Memorial Day and Labor Day. And, that's the time-frame I want you to think of! On the calendar this year, that would include all the Sundays of June, July and August, plus the first Sunday in September (June 3 thru September 2).

On those Sundays, I invite you to sleep late ... and, still make it to church on time!

To do that, there is a "switch" necessary in our summer Sunday schedule. Specifically, we will have only one worship service each Sunday morning between Memorial Day and Labor Day – the "late" service, at 10:30 AM. Sunday School, together with our Youth and Adult Bible Classes, will continue each week at 9:15 AM ... meaning that the only "switch" is that we will not have the "early" service at 8 AM during the summer.

Why? Really, it comes down to two reasons (neither of which are to allow you to sleep late and still be on time for church). First, it should surprise no one that our Sunday morning attendance has been lower than average (and, since most of you only attend one service, I can tell you that the attendance is lower at both services). It is also common for our summer attendance to drop even more due to vacations, military families moving away after CGSC, and the like. However, if we move to only one service, we can "double" our attendance at that service! (OK, that really is only a numbers game ... but, it does lead to the second reason for this switch!)

If we are all together on a Sunday morning, both "halves" of the congregation will have the opportunity to get to know each other. One of the things that always amazes me is that many of our "early" folks don't know our "late" folks – after spending the summer together, we will all know our St. Paul family a little bit better!

My hope is that we also come to view Sunday morning as starting – not at 8 AM, or even at 10:30 AM, but – at 9:15 AM. Sunday School for our children is crucial in their faith-development ... and, even as youth or adults, we never stop growing (at least, we never should!). Be watching the Seed Packet and worship folder notes for more information about Summer Sunday School.

Now, the next question that I'm guessing is on your mind: which "style" of worship will be using? Will it be the more traditional, liturgical format of the early service; or, the "Prayer & Praise" format of the late service? Yes. Both. On a rotating schedule, we will utilize both formats (together with a few special "blended" services on or near the holidays). Each month, we will have a liturgical service on a Communion Sunday, as-well-as a more contemporary service, with the Praise Team, on a Communion Sunday. The non-communion Sunday service styles will also rotate ... for example, in June: the first Sunday will be liturgical in format; the next two weeks will be led by the Praise Team; and the final Sunday will once again be from the Lutheran Service Book.

[Speaking of LSB, we are also planning to offer some of the liturgies other than the Divine Service (First Setting) that we have been using.]

My prayer is that you will see this "switch" as something good for us all. In fact, I want to emphasize that it is a time for all of us to be together in our congregational life. Jeremiah 40:12 speaks of those who had been scattered coming back to Judah, and reaping an abundance of summer fruit – I pray for this to be an abundant summer for us at St. Paul ... that we might "not give up meeting together, as some are in the habit of doing, but let us encourage one another – and all the more as you see the Day approaching." (Hebrews 10:25)

Blessings,

Principally Speaking

On Friday, March 16, we celebrated Grandparents Day. Many of our Grandparents joined us during our Chapel Service. Moses told the Hebrew people to do all they could to show and express the love they have for God. God has given us families to support, guide and to love us. We serve a loving God and He wants adults to carry children closer to Him. Proverbs 17: 6 says, "Grandchildren are the crowning glory of grandparents." Our children at St. Paul Lutheran School know that their grandparents are special. Grandparents, thank you for giving our children your love and support.

For Life*

“You might think you’ve made mistakes that can’t be forgiven, you’ve been broken beyond repair, you’ve been lost in the eyes of the world. But God has loved you so deeply that He created you, He redeemed you, and He called you to a new life through the same Holy One of Israel. Live this new life of faith to the glory of the Father and the Son and the Holy Spirit, today and forever, Amen.” –

Cozy and Discouraged . . . The Results

In the January Seed Packet, I asked you to consider what makes you feel “cozy” and what makes you feel “discouraged” at St. Paul. Fourteen surveys, representing 15 people, were returned in the month of February. Of those who chose to answer the demographic questions provided, no one identified as being connected to the school, one identified as female 26-55, one identified as male 26-55, six identified as female 56+, four identified as male 56+, and three either marked other or did not identify any association. Because these were open-ended questions, there was diversity in the answers, but after grouping similar responses some areas rose to the top.

“Cozy” garnered 55 comments, which had initial groupings into 35 categories. The greatest number of responses for what makes people feel cozy is our members. Words such as welcoming, friendly, kind thoughtful, humorous, and family-like were provided as your descriptions of our congregation. Outreach and our social ministry was a strong second place. Worship services and the Praise Team shared the third most responses. A second, more broad grouping breaks down most comments into three general areas: worship (including members as noted above), the school and leadership.

There were 51 comments related to “discouraged” feelings. The most comments were related to church attendance, then school enrollment. Third was listed as reconciliation and conflicts within the church and school. After the second, more broad grouping, three areas again rose to the top: worship (including low attendance and other issues), leadership, and the school.

These broad categories don’t tell the whole story as written in your heart-felt and prayer-filled comments but rather point to the areas that need further exploration. Does it surprise you that what makes us as a congregation feels cozy is the same as things that discourage us? That is not a bad thing. Discouragement can bring about change and we don’t have to sacrifice the “cozy” to do it.

The passion that drove 15 of you to respond to the survey questions is the same passion that the Lord uses to do great things in His kingdom. Your thoughts are appreciated as we continue to move forward “Cultivating Awesome Relationships for Eternity” and “Personalizing a Christ-Centered Education that Develops the Whole Child.”

In Christ’s Service,

Janice Denney,
President ☩

An Update
From Our President

Pastor Paul (E-DiBS daily devotions) struck home at my aging heart the other day as he discussed I Timothy 6:6-8. He wrote/spoke:

"Have you taken stock of your possessions lately? Not long ago, my insurance agent asked me to do an informal inventory since it was almost time to review our homeowner's policy. As I walked through the house and took stock, not only of the house itself but the furniture and the electronics and the appliances and everything else that was jammed inside of it, I was frankly taken aback by the sheer volume of stuff my family had acquired over the years. The most disturbing thing, though, wasn't the stuff itself. Yes, we had too much. Yes, we could get rid of a lot. Yes, there were other people in the world who could get more use from our possessions than we ever would. That's true of so many of us, in the United States especially, and truth be told, most of us have more in our garages or in storage than people in other parts of the world would know what to do with.

No, the most disturbing thing was that as I looked around and saw all that we had, I was struck by the sense of need that justified its presence; the way that, as we acquired various items through the years, we defended their purchase by telling ourselves that they were essentials. We needed two cars. We needed a second computer ... We needed new bedroom furniture. As I carried that thought to its logical conclusion, I had to come to terms with something that frankly was uncomfortable to admit: almost without thinking about it, our family had over the years come to view our possessions as a source of security; as a way, perhaps, to measure our idea of success; as a means to contentment ... as if nothing else could do the job. As if God were unable to fill that role on His own." He could have been describing the Bass House and its occupants!

Perhaps we do that with our CHURCH, too. Perhaps we fail to realize that God takes good care of us here at St. Paul, too. He supplies what we have to continue our worship of and service to Him:

... Bob and Rosemary Wells, who have the coffee ready on Sundays.

... Bakers and cooks to feed us on Sunday morning during Bible classes (with special notice of Don and Eleanor Denney, who often provide trays of cookies from Sis' Sweets).

... Faithful men and women who always have our spiritual food ready: Pastor Ed and those who prepare the Bread and Wine for communion every month.

... Devoted folks, who turn on/off the lights and put the parking pylons out/in and receive the offerings and run the sound and projection tech boards every week. Musicians, who give time and energy to rehearse and lead hymns and song of praise for service after service (and speaking for myself, whose incorrect notes are ignored). Men and women, who conquered their own fears to portray Issac, Moses, Nathan, Mary, Saul/Paul, Lydia and Sol the Servant for us as we observed Lent.

... Parents, youth, and others who fed us and cleaned up the basement after Lenten suppers.

... People who sit through often-time fractious Ministry Director meetings as they try to keep us serving the Lord with gladness and forgiveness even when we're cross and vocally unhappy.

... Stephen Ministers, who have willing ears to listen to fellow parish-members who are dealing with crisis (and aren't we all?).

... Green-thumbed people, who make sure that our gardens are beautiful and well-tended.

... Secretaries, who put up with those who ignore or miss deadlines.

It was dangerous for me to start that list. I know I've forgotten to mention someone who helps me in my walk with our Lord. Thank you ALL in this season of Easter as we remember the Resurrection together – but mostly, thank God, whose Holy Spirit prompts us to fill those roles here at the corners of 7th and Miami/Osage.

He is Risen! He is Risen, indeed. Alleluia!

News from our Ladies Aid – Lutheran Women's Missionary League

Ladies Aid will meet on Wednesday, April 4, at 12:30 PM for our annual Spring Luncheon. Chicken and meatballs, breads and beverages will be furnished: you might bring a side dish (salad, veggie or dessert) to add to the buffet table.

Our study for the day will be the continuation of our Martin Luther examination: The Movement, Part 2. Roll Call will be a Scripture verse telling us about sharing of some sort. We will receive a Mite Offering for Missions, financial support for LeadAChild, and a gift-donation for our treasury as part of our business meeting. Decorations will be provided by Virginia Harth.

Final plans will be made for those planning to attend the CrossRoads Zone Event, scheduled for Saturday, April 7, at King of Kings in Gardner as-well-as the Kansas District Convention, scheduled for April 21-23 in Hutchinson.

Come to share the food, fellowship, Christian Growth, and service that we share in Ladies Aid! ☩

St. Paul Ladies Auxiliary News

Ladies Auxiliary did not meet for the month of March. We did speak to each other via email on preparing the Maundy Thursday Dinner. Ladies Auxiliary will help provide casseroles along with a few members from Ladies Aid, Kayla Moritz and Jess Chartier. We would like to thank everyone who has helped with this year's Lenten dinners.

Many blessings to all from Ladies Auxiliary.

Luminaria

RELAY FOR LIFE participants and donors remember loved ones lost to cancer, and honor those battling the disease, by dedicating luminaria bags. Luminaria bags are transformed and illuminated after dark at every local Relay For Life event. Each luminaria is personalized with a name, photo, message or drawing in memory or honor of a friend or loved one who has been affected by cancer. Luminaria can also be dedicated in support of a Relay participant. Each luminaria candle represents a person. They are our mothers, fathers, sisters, brothers, aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews, friends, coworkers ... and so many others. Team Food Fighters, led by Katherine de la Cruz, will be selling luminarias for this year's event. The luminarias will be sold in the front entryway after both services on April 15, cost is $10 per luminaria. All the donations will benefit the American Cancer Society and help cancer patients and their families. If you have any questions please feel free to contact Brenda Goebel (913-563-0051) or Katherine de la Cruz (913-240-8172). †

2018 RELAY FOR LIFE OF LEAVENWORTH COUNTY will be held earlier this year and at a new location. The event is scheduled to be held on April 28, from 1-10 PM at Lansing Middle School, 220 Lion Lane in Lansing. I am the Event Co-Chair this year, along with Katherine de la Cruz, our Accountant. We would like for all Cancer SURVIVORS to get signed-up to join us at the Relay, beginning with the Opening Ceremony at 1 PM, followed by the SURVIVOR LAP around the track. Afterward, Survivors and a Guest will head to SURVIVOR ALLEY for Appetizers and Desserts, as well-as live entertainment. Activities will go on during the day while we all walk around the track. There are some new activities and ways to help raise money during the event this year, along with wonderful food some of the teams sell. We are very excited for all this years event will bring and would love for you to join us. Please Note: In order to receive a SURVIVOR t-shirt in time for the order to go in, you need to be signed up as a SURVIVOR by no later than April 3. Please contact Sonia Freeman (Survivorship Chairperson) at: 913-240-1816. Don't worry ... you can still sign-up after the 3rd for the Survivor activities; however, you will not receive a Survivor t-shirt.

There is a SURVIVOR sign-up sheet in the entry-area of the church. If you are a SURVIVOR, we do this event for you. Please consider joining us, even if just for the Survivor Activities at the opening of the event, and you do not choose to stay for the day, ending with the Luminaria Ceremony. However; if you have never seen a Luminaria Ceremony, it is such a moving time when the lights go out, and we walk around the track by the light of the Luminaria, as we remember those who died from cancer, and honor those who are Survivors, or in current treatment, before the closing ceremony. We will be setting up a table in the entryway on April 15 for the sale of Luminaria. Price is $10 per bag, plus a donation of a canned good to go in it which keeps it in place. All donated canned goods will be donated to Catholic Charities in Leavenworth this year.

If you would like to donate to the cause, please make your check payable to AMERICAN CANCER SOCIETY and mail it to me: Brenda Goebel, 392 Covington Woods Loop (Apt. 106), Lansing, KS 66043. (You can always give it to me at church as well!) All donations will be greatly appreciated. 80% of funds are kept within Leavenworth county.

I hope to see St Paul Lutheran Church & School have a team again this next year. I have been in discussion with a member about it and have offered her my help.

God bless you as you consider signing up or donating to this great cause!

Brenda Goebel, Event Co-Chair ✝

STEPHEN MINISTRY

*“Encourage one another and build each other up, just as in fact you are doing.”
– I Thessalonians 5:11*

Paul was writing to the people in Thessalonica at a time when they were undergoing persecution. His words to the Thessalonians are equally appropriate today, as we face the many difficulties that life presents us. As Christians, we ALL need to encourage one another.

Take the time to read chapter 5 of I Thessalonians. Paul goes on in verses 12 and 13 to tell the people “to respect those who work hard among you ... Live in peace with each other.” He may be speaking of the elders of the church at the time, but the words, again, apply to all of us. Verse 15b says, “but always try to be kind to each other and to everyone else.” If all of us could follow those directions – all of the time – wouldn’t the world be a different place?!

Finally, Paul gives another set of instructions in verses 16-18 (very short verses – but important advice!): “Be joyful always; pray continually; give thanks in all circumstances, for this is God’s will for you in Christ Jesus.”

Stephen Ministry has been active here at St. Paul for 20 years – since Lea Metz became our first Stephen Leader after attending the Stephen Leader training course. At the heart of Stephen Ministry is the love of Christ. Through Him, many prayers have been answered and people have volunteered to serve as Stephen Ministers. Over the years, we have had as many as 12 or more Stephen Ministers at one time ready to serve. Our numbers have dwindled lately, so that currently we have only 6 people actively serving as Stephen Ministers (and that number includes our 2 leaders). We would love to find more people who would be willing to commit to going through the training to serve as Stephen Ministers. If you are at all interested, please contact one of our leaders or Pastor Ed. They will be able to provide you with the information you need to help you decide if this is a way in which you would like to serve.

We praise and thank God for all who serve now – Velma Bass, Pam Floetke, Helen Genter, Lynn Genter, Margaret Hanawalt, and Eric Rathburn – and all who have served in the past! We also praise God that He has led others to seek the help of a Stephen Minister. The number of people who have been blessed through Stephen Ministry is growing.

If we can be of service to you – to lend a listening ear or to answer your questions about becoming a Stephen Minister – please contact Pastor Ed (913-758-7624; pastor@splcs.org) or one of our leaders: Helen Genter (913-775-0710; lgenter63@gmail.com) or Eric Rathburn (913-221-2411; rahtburneric@gmail.com). †

In April, we will read “The Snow Child” (by Eowyn Ivey). It’s Alaska, 1920: a brutal place to homestead, and especially tough for recent arrivals Jack & Mabel. Childless, they are drifting apart – he, breaking under the weight of the work of the farm; she, crumbling from loneliness and despair. In a moment of levity during the season’s first snowfall, they build a child out of snow. The next morning the snow child is gone ... but they glimpse a young, blonde-haired girl running through the trees.

This little girl, who calls herself Faina, seems to be a child of the woods. She hunts with a red fox at her side, skims lightly across the snow, and somehow survives alone in the Alaskan wilderness. As Jack & Mabel struggle to understand this child who could have stepped from the pages of a fairy tale, they come to love her as their own daughter. But in this beautiful, violent place, things are rarely as they appear, and what they eventually learn about Faina will transform all of them.

The Kitchen House, by Kathleen Grissom is “a contemporary classic,” in which a dark secret threatens to expose the best and worst in everyone tied to the estate at a thriving Virginia plantation decades before the Civil War.

Orphaned during her passage from Ireland, young, white Lavinia arrives on the steps of the kitchen house and is placed, as an indentured servant, under the care of Belle, the master’s illegitimate slave daughter. In time, Lavinia is accepted into the world of the big house, caring for the master’s opium-addicted wife and befriending his dangerous, yet protective, son. She attempts to straddle the worlds of the kitchen and big house, but her skin color will forever set her apart from Belle and the other slaves.

Through the unique eyes of Lavinia and Belle, we’ll see a heartbreaking and ultimately hopeful story of class, race, dignity, deep-buried secrets, and familial bonds.

The Reading Circle meets at 10 AM the 2nd Saturday of each month (except December) at the Kansas Country Store, 728 Cherokee St., in Leavenworth. Questions? Book suggestions? Contact Becca Mease (547-0763; rmease@kc.rr.com). ☪

“MISSION OF THE MONTH” – MARCH WRAP-UP! During March, our “Mission of the Month” was our support of Amani Mosi Masanika, a Tanzanian youth supported by our School through Compassion, International.
